Anne Wachsmann

Partner
Competition/Antitrust

Linklaters LLP

Ms. Anne Wachsmann leads the Competition/Antitrust practice at the Paris office of the global law firm Linklaters which has an office in Seoul headed by Stephen Le Vesconte. Ranked in Band 1 in Chambers and listed as one of the top successful women in antitrust worldwide, Anne Wachsmann is a key player in the competition field. In 2014, she won the Euromoney European Women in Business Law Award for Best Lawyer in Competition and is ranked by Legal 500 among the leading individuals in France for competition matters. She spent eight years in Brussels. Since 2016, she is a professor at the College of Europe in Bruges.

Her clients span a broad range of industry sectors (automotive for Peugeot Citroën, healthcare for Sanofi, air transport for Air France-KLM, consumer goods for Beiersdorf and LG Electronics etc.), whilst her caseload reflects her extensive experience in competition law and policy: cartels, abuse of dominant position, vertical restraints, merger control, from the administrative investigations to first instance and appeal proceedings before domestic and EU jurisdictions.

Junhyun Song

Partner

Bae, Kim & Lee LLC

Junhyun Song is a partner of Antitrust Practice Group in Bae, Kim and Lee LLC. Since he joined Bae, Kim and Lee LLC in 2008, he has counseled and represented for prominent corporate clients such as Samsung and LG on a wide range of antitrust law matters including cartels, abuse of market dominant power, merger filings, antitrust damage suits, consumer protection, etc. He achieved remarkable success in major cross border anti-trust cases including an international air cargo cartel case in 2009 on behalf of Polar Air Cargo, a merger review case on the proposed JV establishment between BHPB and Rio-Tinto in 2010 on behalf of Nippon Steel, the litigation for seeking annulment of the Korea Fair Trade Commission's decision on the LCD cartel in 2012 on behalf of LG Electronics. Recently he is engaging in Qualcomm's Patents Abuse case, representing Samsung Electronics to support the Korea Fair Trade Commission's decision.

Also he has actively contributed an article to legal journals on a variety of antitrust issues including atypical cartel (i.e. hub-and-spoke price fixing) and vertical agreements. He graduated from Seoul National University (LL.B, 2005) earned an LL.M. degree from Duke University School of Law in 2014.
