

Dear Valued Members,

We are pleased to announce that the ECCK Breakfast Meeting with Former UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon will be held at Namsan 1 (2F), Grand Hyatt Seoul on Tuesday, September 17, 2019.

In recent years, fine dust pollution became a serious concern and inevitable health issue in Korea. In April, the 'National Council on Climate and Air Quality', a presidential committee headed by former UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon, was launched to propose fundamental solution to tackle fine dust pollution in Korea. The committee is tasked with providing the government with policy recommendations on how to tackle air pollution and exploring ways to cooperate with neighboring countries.

At the ECCK Breakfast Meeting, Mr. Ban will deliver a special speech on the topic of 'Climate Change and Air Quality', sharing his valuable insights on the future direction of related policies. The program will consist of the Mr. Ban's speech and a Q&A session. Representatives from European companies operating in Korea will be attending the event.

We would like to offer you a partnership opportunity, which could help you to expose and promote your company through this meaningful event. This unique opportunity is available for KRW 1,000,000 (VAT will be applied)

More precisely, the partnership will provide benefits such as:

- 4 free admissions
- Company logo exposure on installed banners

To sign up for the partnership or find out more, please contact Ms Hyewon Shim (02-6261-2711, hyewon.shim@ecck.eu) by September 3, 2019.

Thank you

Yours Sincerely,

European Chamber of Commerce in Korea (ECCK)
